New Convert Subsidy Guidelines

Purpose

To encourage new converts or the children of new converts to be enrolled in a Seventh-day Adventist school.

Identity of New Convert

- On joining the Seventh-day Adventist Church through baptism or profession of faith within the 18-month period prior to school enrollment.
- If school-aged children have joined the church, the parent(s) or guardian(s) must either have joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church within the last 18 months as well or not be members of the church.

Benefits

- 75% tuition discount to be granted by the school during the first semester of enrollment.
- 50% tuition discount to be granted by the school during the second semester of enrollment.
- 25% tuition discount to be granted by the school during the third semester of enrollment.

Procedures

- School boards choosing to participate will grant the above benefits subsequent to recommendation of the pastor(s).
- Superintendents will certify to the NPUC Office of Education by name and school those students who are enrolled under these criteria.
- The Montana Conference Office of Education will receive from the North Pacific Union Conference a subsidy of $500 per student for academy students and $400 per student for elementary and junior academy students per semester for those who are enrolled under the above criteria. This subsidy will be distributed to participating schools by the conference office.
